

Just the Havana jazz festival

Day 1 • Tuesday • Say hello to the city of music

- Collect your luggage and proceed through Cuban customs to the arrivals lobby.
- Consider purchasing Cuban Convertible Pesos at the airport exchange bureau (CADECA), or later at your hotel.
- Our airport concierge or your tour guide will arrange tour bus or private taxi transfers from the airport to your hotel located in El Vedado, the heart of Havana's cultural district. Your hotel check-in is pre-arranged, you simply present your passport.
- Time at hotel to settle in and freshen up.
- Dinner is served at your hotel's restaurant.
- The Havana Jazz festival organizing committee greets us with a nice surprise. Tonight you will be enjoying the first musical notes of the Havana Jazz Festival. Choose among events taking place at several different venues (transportation NOT INCLUDED)

Day 2 • Wednesday • Old Havana + Havana Jazz Festival performances

- Greet the day with tasty breakfast served at your hotel.
 - Followed by a private walking tour of Old Havana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We'll visit four historic plazas that make Havana unique in the western hemisphere. Together they contain the largest collection of remaining Spanish colonial-era architecture in the world.
 - Cathedral Square, the most beautiful and private 18th century colonial plaza on the island. Named after the masterpiece of Cuban baroque architecture, Catedral de San Cristóbal de la Habana was built by the Jesuit order.
 - Square of Arms, an ancient military parade ground for Spanish soldiers, surrounded by impressive buildings such as:

- Palacio de los Capitanes Generales, former seat of colonial government. Today the building houses the Museum of the City.
- Palacio del Segundo Cabo [Palace of the Second Lieutenant] dates from 1770.
- We continue onto San Francisco Square, one of the oldest plazas in the historical quarter. The square is named after magnificent Iglesia y Monasterio de San Francisco de Asís dating from the 16th century. The basilica is a striking example of Cuba baroque architecture.
- On to Plaza Vieja, the only civic square of colonial times. Absent are churches and government buildings. The plaza is surrounded by opulent aristocratic 17th century residences.
- Welcome lunch at the private restaurant Mojito-Mojito. Ideally situated in Plaza Vieja, its friendly atmosphere, and delicious food makes it rank high on TripAdvisor. The restaurant's slogan: "A single mojito is not enough."
- Return to your hotel and freshen up.
- Dinner at the private restaurant Los Naranjos. Located in the heart of Vedado in an expansive 1930s mansion, its Chef Ernesto specializes in fusion style dishes combining Cuban, Italian and Spanish influences. Los Naranjos' ambiance is fun and light, its food wonderful, authentic and fresh, and staff upbeat and attentive. Its a favorite among TripAdvisor reviewers.
